ABOUT US

---

Demopets is a virtual pet site with various species to choose from and play with while exploring a fantasy world of unique characters and interacting with other players.

Demopets hopes to become the premiere virtual pet experience for today's world. Gone are the days of requiring a clunky desktop to play browser-games. The future is here and mobile is the new top priority! We strive to create an amazing experience for mobile and desktop users alike.

THE TEAM

Creator

Joelle is the lead designer and creator of Demopets. At the moment she is the only member of the team! What a great page. Joelle is currently a Web Design student at John Tyler Community College, and plans to graduate in December of 2022. She hopes to learn some back-end development in order to turn Demopets into a functioning site one day.
